DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed October 21, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant has asserted that a prima facie case has not been made for the customer being a supplier. The applicant is respectfully reminded that references in determining obviousness are not read in isolation, but for what they fairly teach in combination with the prior art as a whole. Again it should be noted that references are evaluated by what they suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art rather than their specific disclosure [see In re bozek, 163 USPQ 545 (CCPA 1969)]. In this case, the Andersen generally teaches that an evaluation is made by a manufacturing company using CSI to determine how profitable and/or effective a dealership is. In the 35 USC § 103(a) rejection made on October 18, 2001, the Office Action set forth reasoning to establish a prima facie case that it was reasonable for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the definition of customer/borrower in Andersen's system to include suppliers considering the fact that Andersen discloses a Customer Service Index used by suppliers (manufacturers) to evaluate other "types" of suppliers (dealers) (see col. 6, ll. 51-61) and that an artisan of ordinary skill in the art would recognize that the purchase of a large quantity of items (vehicles) would greatly increase the amount of profits found in the system within a shorter period of time. Thus to broaden the definition of customer/borrow to include supplier would greatly increase the use of Andersen and thus have been an obvious expedient, well within the ordinary skill in the art.

Conclusion

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
